DEATHS

SELBY

Ruby Marie Selby, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Selby, of Shawhan, died at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. Insko, in Cynthiana, after a short illness. The body was taken to Carlisle for interment. The little girl was about four months old.

TULLY

Mrs. John M. Flanagan, of Houston avenue, received a telegram telling of the death of her eldest brother, Michael Tully, who was killed in an automobile accident near Pittsburg, Tuesday. The telegram gave no particulars other than those stated above.

MARTIN

Mrs. Mary Jane Bradley, aged eighty-eight, widow of Jehu Martin, died Tuesday at the home of her son, Dr. W. H. Martin, in Carlisle, after a long illness due to the infirmities of age. Mrs. Martin is survived by two sons, Dr. W. H. Martin, of Carlisle, and James Martin, of Millersburg, and one daughter, Mrs. W. H. Thompson, of Carlisle.

Funeral services were held at her home in Carlisle, Wednesday afternoon, at three o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. R. E. Elmore, pastor of the Carlisle Christian church. The interment followed on the family lot in the Carlisle Cemetery.

BUCHANAN

The body of John Buchanan, who died at his home in Waterville, Washington, several days ago, arrived in Paris, Tuesday, and was taken to the home of his brother, Frank Buchanan, near Paris, where the funeral services were held, conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church.

The body was taken to Cincinnati in charge of Undertaker George R. Davis, of Paris, for cremation. The ashes were brought back for interment in the Clintonville Cemetery.

Mr. Buchanan left Bourbon county about thirty-five years ago and located in the West. He accumulated an estate valued, it was stated, at about $50,000, which will be inherited by his brothers, Frank, Bunt and Abraham Buchanan, and his half-sister, Mrs. H. C. Parvin, all of Bourbon county.

HOWE

A long distance telephone message to Julian Howe, of THE NEWS, yesterday afternoon, announced the death in Carlisle, at Mrs. Dunlap Howe, who had been seriously ill for some time with heart trouble.

Mrs. Howe was formerly Miss Lizzie Stitt, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Matthew H. Stitt, of Carlisle, and a sister of Holladay Stitt, of Carlisle, well-known to Paris people. She had been an invalid for several years, being a sufferer from organic heart trouble and had been confined to her home for the past five weeks. Her husband, Dunlap Howe, was a resident of Paris for several years, being manager of the Hotel Windsor, and now a prominent merchant of Carlisle.

Mrs. Howe is survived by her husband, Dunlap Howe; one sister, Mrs. Hugo Schilling, of Berkeley, Calif.; and one daughter, Miss Anna Madison Howe, of Carlisle.

CLAY

Mrs. Anna Lee Washington Clay, widow of E. F. Clay, Jr., of Paris, died suddenly at eight o'clock, Tuesday night, at her home near Paris. Mrs. Clay had been ill but a few days, and her friends and relatives did not realize that her condition was so serious until a short time before her death. Death was caused from a hemorrhage of the brain.

Mrs. Clay was a native of Knoxville, Tenn., and was a daughter of George and Jane Todd Ramsey Washington, of Newport, her father being a prominent attorney of Newport, the family being prominent in church and social circles. Since the death of her husband Mrs. Clay continued to reside at the family home on the Cynthiana pike, near Paris.

Mrs. Clay is survived by her mother, Mrs. George Washington, who made her home with her; one son, E. F. Clay, III; one sister, Miss Ramsey Washington, of Newport; two brothers, Alfred Washington, of San Francisco, Calif., and William Washington, of Detroit, Mich.

The funeral was held in St. Peter's Episcopal church, at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, with services conducted by the rector, Rev. Walter S. Cain. The burial followed on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Buckner Clay, Buckner Woodford, Samuel Clay, Brutus Clay, John F. Davis, Catesby Spears, John J. Williams and William Talbott.

OUR CHRISTMAS GREETING TO YOU AND YOURS

More than any other holiday in the year Christmas is the children's day. It is their day of mystery and excitement, of enchantment and gifts. And if its symbolism is explained to them and they are made to see how the story of the birth of Jesus is really the source of all their happiness, Christmas will not be merely a day of enjoyment but an influence in shaping and strengthening character. To the grown-up who instructs the child quite as much as to the child who is instructed the retelling of the Christmas story and the endeavor to make its appeal vivid and personal will probably bring some addition of grace if not of strength for facing life's immediate problems.

In emphasizing the religious character of Christmas it is important that we should realize and make clear what the character of our religion is. Because Christianity is the religion of friendliness, of cheerfulness, of happiness, and not a religion of gloom and asceticism, we should make the day dedicated to the founding of Christianity one of good cheer. In recognition of the appropriateness of such observance we give presents and see that the Christmas feast is gay and jolly. We bring our families and friends together and renew our common interests and the bonds of our hospitality warm and cordial; if we are guests, we enter into the spirit of the house in which we are entertained.

There is still another thought about our religion that should be in our minds on Christmas Day. Because Christianity is the religion of friendship and cheerfulness, it is the religion of work. The religions of meditation and contemplation have never produced the spirit of friendship, the spirit that gave rise to the greeting, "Merry Christmas!" In celebrating Christmas let us find in the sympathy, affection, and cheerfulness that flow out to us a stimulus to better work and greater accomplishment.

On Christmas Day we think of the absent a special intensity of longing. For many people the spirit of cheerfulness has a hard fight to make on that day. Memories of other and happier Christmas arise—memories of dear ones who no longer can join in the merrymaking. But they whose presence gave a radiance to past Christmas Days would not wish their absence to throw a gloom over Christmas to come. They would say, if they could, "Let this be your special effort—to keep the children and the guests from seeing what you see—the vacant chair in shadow before the Christmas fire."

THE COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS TREE

The Community Christmas Tree, under the auspices of the Bourbon County Health and Welfare League, will be a feature of to-morrow afternoon. The celebration will be given in the County Court room at two o'clock, under the supervision of Mrs. Harriet Minaker, Visiting Nurse for the organization. The general public is invited to attend. The tree will be a great treat for the poor children of the city, who are not provided with means of celebrating the "great day of all days."

CONGRESSMAN CANTRILL IS CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

J. Campbell Cantrill, of Georgetown, Congressman from the Seventh district, made formal announcement of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor at Louisville, Wednesday night. Mr. Cantrill is the second entrant in the race, Congressman Alben W. Barkley, of Paducah, previously having announced his candidacy.

Expressing himself as favoring a Statewide primary to determine the nomination of the Democratic candidate for Governor, Mr. Cantrill declared in the statement announcing his candidacy his belief that it "would be political suicide for our party to make the nomination in any other way. Only in a primary election can the women voters of the State give full expression to their political opinions."

In his announcement Mr. Cantrill pledges himself, if nominated and elected, not to become a candidate for United States Senator during his term of office. The term of the Governor elected at the 1923 election will cover the selection of successors to both the present Kentucky Senators.

Outlining the platform upon which his bid for the nomination was made, Mr. Cantrill declared his determination for full enforcement of all laws; expressed opposition to the tendency toward "putting on the statute books laws regulating the business and private affairs of the citizens; favored construction of highways in every county where they are needed and pledged equal attention to all sections of the State in this respect."

"If elected," the statement declared, "pardons will be scarce at Frankfort, especially for the crime of taking human life." A promise for a thorough investigation and equitable distribution of taxes and that the bipartisan control of State institutions would not be disturbed, also was incorporated in the formal announcement.
